HEDDING HIGHLIGHTS

Midwinter Issue

January, 2026

Greetings, everyone. The holidays are over, we have actual snow this year, and Stranger Things has finally ended! Below and on Page 2 you'll find some news and a few items from the various organizations. (See the last page for news on the Spring.) As usual, we've attached a draft of next summer's calendar; please check the Highlights each week during the summer for changes, which always happen!

We'll see you "for real" in June, Lord willing. Meanwhile, be well.

— Your Ever-Faithful Editors

Around and About

Long-time Heddingite Sandy Bowers, mother of Tracy Dwyer and Todd Bowers, passed away on December 8. She had been in poor health for some time. Our condolences to Tracy, Todd, and to Sandy's extended family in Hedding and everywhere. She will be missed.

* * *

We are pleased to inform you that Hedding has completed another long-overdue logging operation on the south side of the property headed towards the river. This was done as a necessity for the health and wellbeing of the woodlands in our Tree Farm.

In order to accomplish this feat, there are many "new" paths that were required to achieve the process involved. These paths will serve as the bedding for new growth timber.

Nothing more than footprints should traverse these new paths in order for the new growth to begin and improve the health of our tree farm.

These off-limits areas will be marked to varying degrees. To avoid confusion: if there was a path there before the logging project, it's for continued use. If it's a new pathway or even something resembling a road, it should be considered the bedding for the forest restoration.

— Larry Powers, for the Forestry Committee

On a rainy or snowy day, don't forget to go through all your jewels and decide what to sell in August at the Fair jewelry table! All donations accepted, and appreciated.

Fair Day 2026!

Hedding Fair 2026 - Hedding In Our Hearts Always:
 "Favorite Fair Memories"

Whether you're new here, have been here all your life, or something in between, our shared love for Hedding is what brings us together every year.

This year, we're remembering our favorite Fairs and what made them great. With that in mind, we have a few fun ideas and are looking for more. What are your favorite fair memories: tables, games, food, activities? Dig out your old Fair Photos! Anything we can revive, or build on, something you'd like to see brought back? So many viewpoints, and so much to consider...please share your thoughts!

We look forward to sharing more information in future Highlights.

If we haven't had a chance to talk to you yet, please know that the Fair needs your help. We are thankful for the returning table chairs, and please remember that if you have a new table idea you'd like to run with, we'd love to hear it.

May we all have a healthy winter, and we look forward to seeing you at Hedding!

Religious LifeLines

The Religious Life Committee wishes you a happy and healthy New Year! You will find the list of preachers on the calendar for the new season at the end of this issue.

We are pleased to announce that Choral Majority will be performing for us on Saturday, July 25 in Chautauqua Hall; time of the event is TBD. We are also planning to bring back Illumination Night on Saturday, August 8. Please let Diane Angus or Robyn Renzelman know if you are interested in illuminating your cottage that evening.

Terry Herring will again lead the Growth Group, starting on Friday, July 10 at 9:30 a.m. at the Studio. The book he will be reading from will be The Challenge of Acts: Rediscovering What the Church Was and Is by N.T. Wright. You can easily order from Amazon, or Terry will have some copies on hand this summer.

Our Camp Meeting speaker is retired pastor Tom Getchell-Lacey, serving at the East Parish UMC in Salisbury, Mass. The Camp Meeting Week cook crew will be serving our delicious meals again. We thank them for their time and for organizing the meals for the community.

As always, we will be holding meetings during the summer that everyone is invited to. Please feel free to reach out with any suggestions or ideas to help with Religious Life. See you in the spring!!

Day Camp

We can hardly believe that we are halfway through the "off season" already! Summer will be here before we know it. This coming summer marks a number of changes, as we are looking to fill various director positions. If you are interested in leading any of our programs this summer, please send a letter of interest to Robyn Renzelman at Robyn.Angus@yahoo.com and Shandra Wall at MrsShandraWall@gmail.com

We are grateful that Erica Tweedie is returning as Arts and Crafts Director. We can't wait to see what creative projects she leads for our campers this summer!

All returning and new Day Camp Counselors must complete a new application each year. To apply as a Day Camp Counselor, you must be age 13 by September 1, 2026 AND complete the first week of your first year of camp as a CIT (Counselor In Training). (Subject to change at the Day Camp Committee's discretion.)

Applications are found on the Hedding website; please complete and submit by April 15.

As always, if you have questions or concerns, please reach out to Shandra or Robyn and they will address them with the rest of the committee.

UPDATE ON THE SPRING: The Trustees are still negotiating with the excavator on the repairs to the Spring, which will cost at least $50,000. The long drain pipe is crushed and must be replaced, which entails tearing up and replacing crumbling masonry and stonework. No shortcuts are possible. The current Spring structure is 100 years old, and its useful life is over. The Spring is the reason for Hedding's existence; Hedding without the Spring is unimaginable. It's a big expense, and about $10,000 have been donated to help cover the gap between the sum voted on at the Annual Meeting and the actual cost. If you can afford to donate, please do so, as generously as you can! Send a check to: Hedding Camp Meeting Association, P.O. Box 517, Epping, NH 03042. Future generations will thank you! — Ed.
